SPIRIT SHIRT DAY—04/30/2015

Parents, please remember that students who purchased the spirit shirt this year, which supports our 8th grade class trip, may wear that shirt and non-uniform bottoms. Thank you.

SCRIP Contest:

The final SCRIP contest is still running. Remember, the class with the most percentage of family participation in SCRIP purchases will win a pizza party for their class. The second and third place classes will get a Popsicle party. The winning classes will be announced at the May PTO meeting and the parties can be scheduled for their End-Of-Year party.

From the Principal's Desk:

Lenten Collection

A special thank you for those that participated in the St. Jude Children's Hospital math-a-thon. We raised $4,172.00 this year! What a fantastic job done by all.

The Lenten Rice bowl project crosses church and school. Many turned in rice bowls at church as well as the school. We collected $1,117.00 here at school. Thank you!

Caldecott/Newbery Awards

Many of our students have turned in their forms for this award. If your student is still reading for this award, please encourage them to finish. Forms are due to the library by Friday, May 8th.

Library News:

Wednesday, the 22nd, students will be able to buy and we will stay open till 4PM

Thursday, the 23rd, students will be able to buy and we will stay open till 4PM

Friday, the 24th is the last buying day and we will close at 3PM, so we can pack up the Fair.
