Welcome to the World of Debate and Diplomacy: Model United Nations!

You are cordially invited to participate in the 3rd Annual Saint John Paul II (JPII) HS
Model United Nations Conference
through which you will represent a country
as a delegate in the United Nations (UN), and will learn to solve world issues through debate, diplomacy, and pizza.

- When: Saturday, September 19th, 2026, 8:45 am – 3:00 pm
- Where: JPII High School, 7301 Old Madison Pike NW, Huntsville, AL 35806
- Who: The conference is open to all area high and middle school students.
- Cost: $20 (covers basic supplies, pizza lunch, and awards, including conference gavels for our top award winners)
- Attire: Western Business Attire (dress shirt, dress pants, dress shoes and tie for gentlemen; female equivalent for ladies)
- Prep: Research your country's position on the topic at hand. You may complete an optional position paper for award consideration.
- Options: Disarmament (DISEC) Committees I and II with both addressing the topic of Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAVs a.k.a. Drones)
- Learn: You will learn the rules of debate through Parliamentary Procedure, how to solve issues by crafting Resolutions, and how to negotiate and resolve conflicts through discussion and compromise.
- Awards: Best Position Paper, Best Delegate, and Delegate's Choice.
- Sign Up: Interested students should contact Mr. Paul Saboe, the JPII Model UN Coach psaboe@jp2falcons.org to obtain a conference background guide, a list of available countries, and to sign up. Spots are limited and are going fast for this unique educational opportunity!
