

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Today, Ash Wednesday, marks the beginning of the season of Lent. Lent is a beautiful season as it provides the avenue for spiritual renewal and awakening. These Lenten days help us prepare for our highest holy days. Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week followed by the Triduum; Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday marching to the glorious day of Easter!

We begin this beautiful journey together. We are sending home a Lenten booklet in the gold folder today. Hopefully, it will be a resource that you can use to “Hand on the Faith” to your children.

I encourage you to take a minute today to determine what your spiritual commitment will be during Lent. Remember, if you start and then unintentionally stop, you can always begin again! Don’t let the devil derail you.

May we all be committed to this beautiful season of spiritual rebirth.

Happy Ash Wednesday,

Sherry Lewis
