

At our National Junior Honor Society meeting, we elected new officers for the 2022-2023 school year. The results are as follows:

- Vice President: Madelyn Freelove
- Secretary—Elizabeth Rohling
- Treasurer—George Detwiler
- Chaplain—Ryan French

Tony Stott, our last year's Vice President, assumes the position as President this year. Candidates did a wonderful job with their speeches and posters. Congratulations to all of our new NJHS officers! Thank you.

It is almost time for our Fall Book Fair.

In-person dates for our students are October 17-21, 2022.

Online Book Fair dates are Oct 14 – 27, 2022. All online orders will ship direct to your home. Free shipping is offered on book-only purchases over $25. The Library will earn 25% of the total online sales in Scholastic Dollars! Be sure to check out the E-Wallet payment option. E-Wallet is a safe and easy way to purchase books both in person and online. When you set up an E-Wallet, there is no need to send cash or check with your students when they shop the fair! You can learn more about the E-Wallet payment option and set up and manage your account on our Scholastic Book Fair Home Page:

<https://www.scholastic.com/bf/stjohnthebaptistschool4>

The link will be open from September 29th – October 31st . Students will visit the Book Fair with their class on Monday and Tuesday morning to make their wish lists. They will be able to purchase books Tuesday afternoon through Friday morning.

Parents: The Book Fair will be open for you to visit on Tuesday October 18th from 3:30 – 5:30 pm

Important note: We are required to charge sales tax on all purchases this year. The Madison City tax rate of 9% will be added to each purchase. Please keep this in mind when calculating the amount of money your child will need.

Please contact Ms. Katy Sperry, our Librarian, at email ksperry@stjohnb.com with any questions.

Thankyou!
